

On the airport, AirTrain is free to connect to terminals, car rentals and parking lots.

Purchase a ticket to ride on AirTrain from NJ TRANSIT or Amtrak ticket agents and vending machines — one ticket does it all. If you're taking PATH, you will pay $1.75 for the ride on PATH and pay the remaining portion when you purchase the NJ TRANSIT ticket.

Be sure to check the NJ Transit or Amtrak train schedule, especially first and last train times weekdays, weekends and holidays.

AirTrain Newark The Rail Link Connection

Welcome to AirTrain Newark.

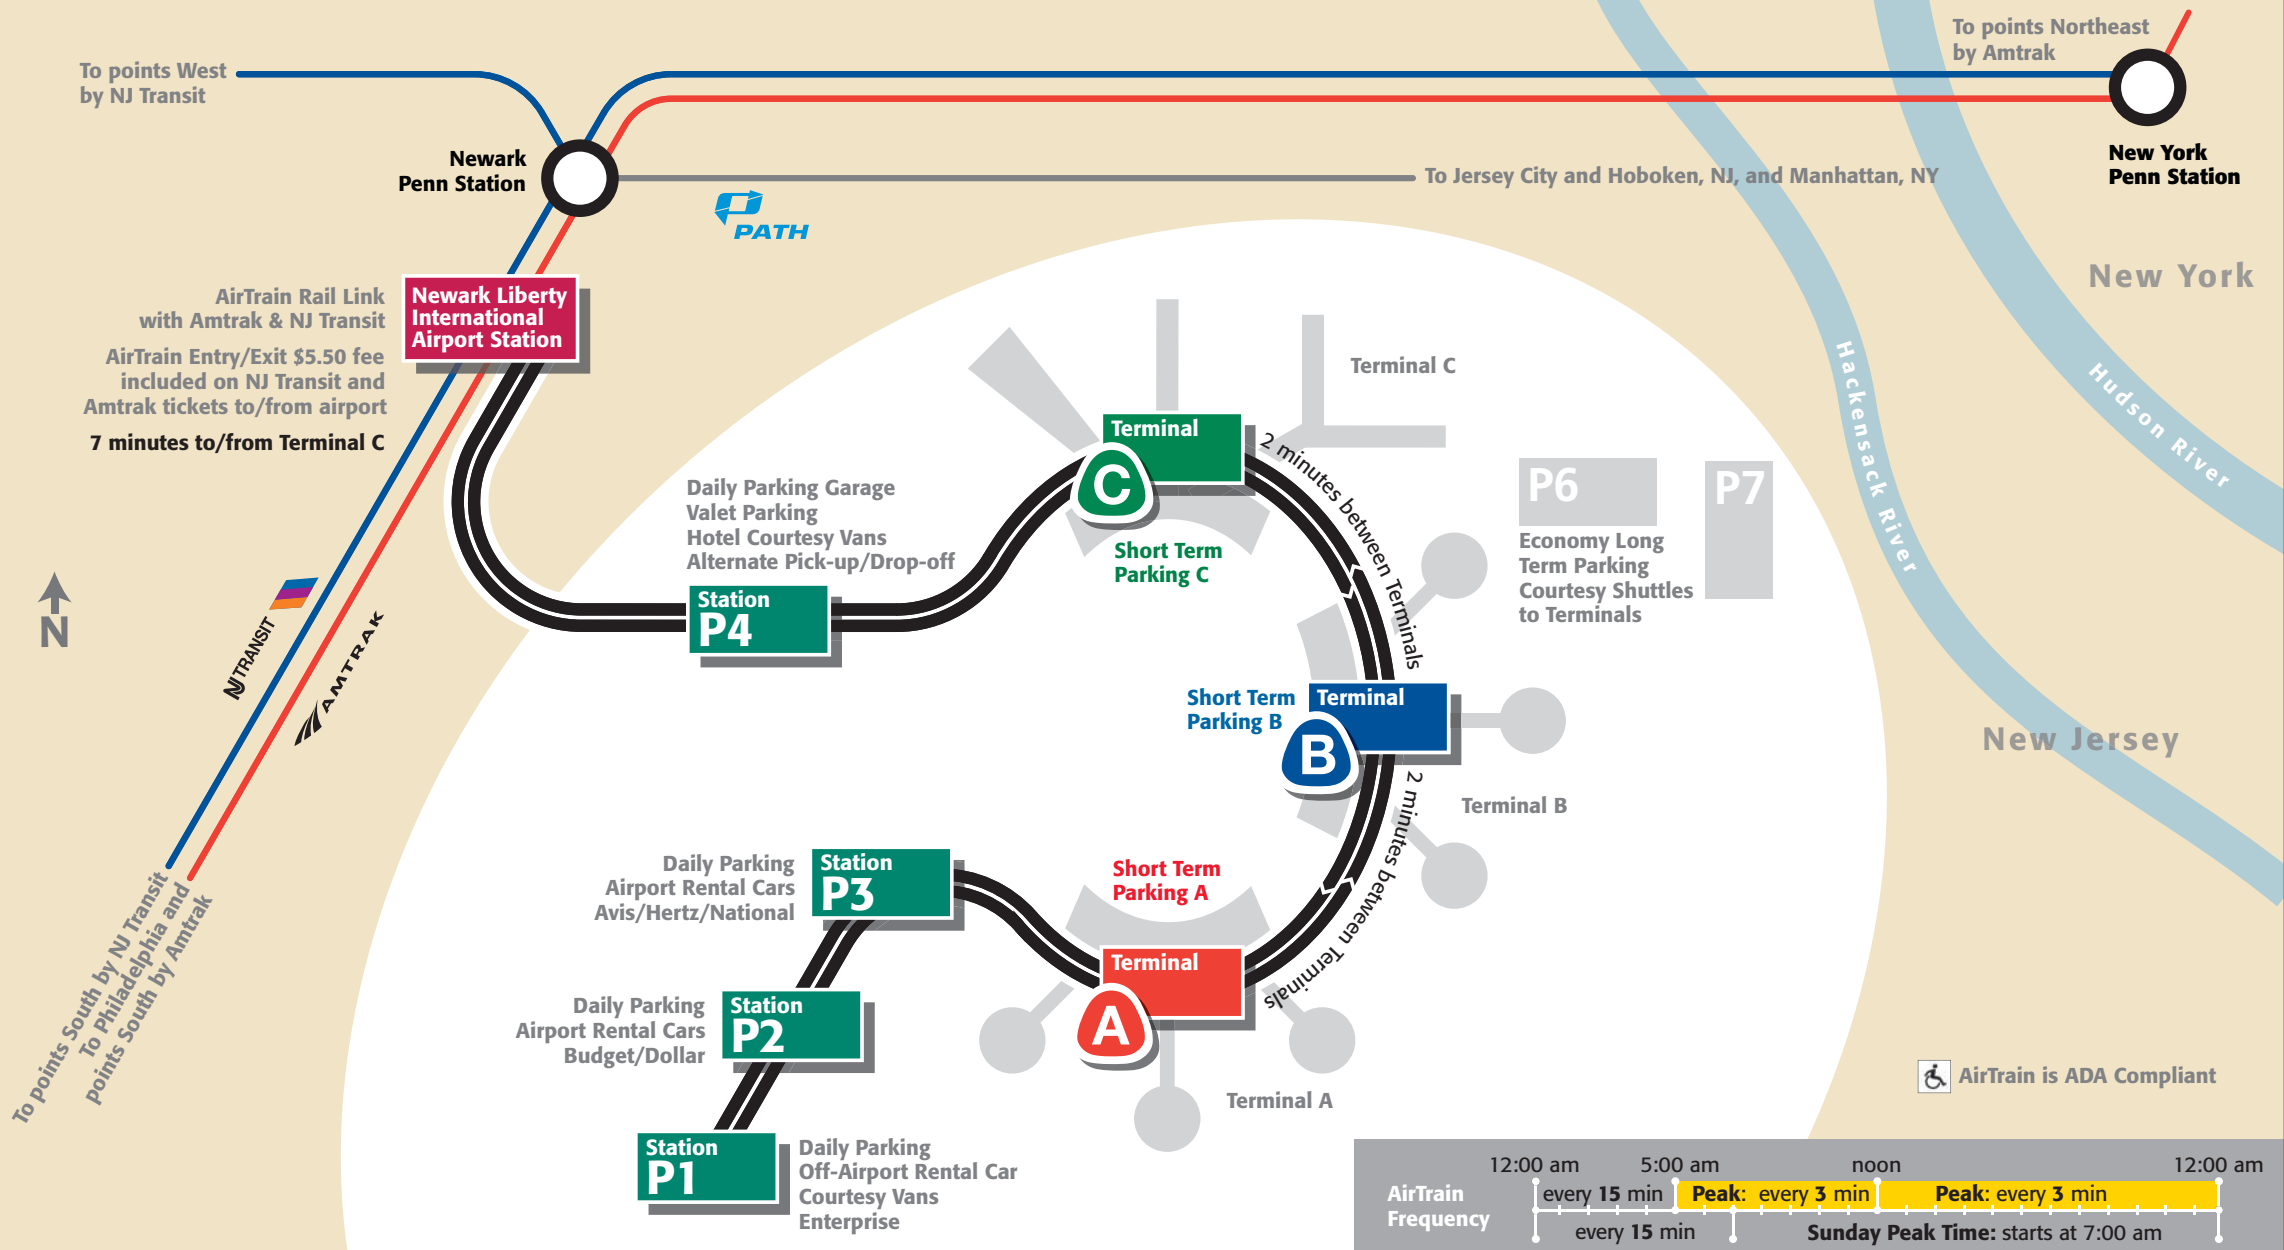

AirTrain Newark is the rail alternative to driving to Newark Liberty International Airport.

Developed by The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, AirTrain Newark runs 24 hours a day, every day and provides easy connections to the rail lines that run on the Northeast Corridor and North Jersey Coast Line.

Use AirTrain Newark by taking any NJ TRANSIT or Amtrak train that stops at the Newark Liberty International Airport Station. PATH riders can use AirTrain by taking NJ TRANSIT from Newark Penn Station.

If you're an arriving passenger at Newark Liberty, AirTrain is an easy, low-cost way to get to Manhattan and points north or to Philadelphia and points south.

PATH Service to Newark Penn Station

PATH, a service of the Port Authority, is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Trains run frequently during most hours every day, but run at a reduced frequency during certain hours of the day.

Please contact PATH for full service schedule information.
